

The Grace of God: So What?

IF...

- If Jesus' death tore apart the veil between man and the Most Holy Place of God's presence...
Hebrews 9:11-14; Matthew 27:31
- If the blood of Christ cleanses not only my sinful nature of the spiritual consequences of sin, but also my guilty conscience...
Heb. 9:12-14
- If the blood sacrifice of Christ was "once for all"...
Heb. 9:12, 26; 10:11-18)
- If we walk in the light as He is in the light...
1 John 1:7
- If the fellowship I have with God through the blood of Christ, is linear in nature...
1 Jn. 1:7; Heb. 7:24,25)
- If, in Christ I am never out of fellowship with God...

Then...

- then by His blood, I have been given the very same access to God that Jesus enjoys.
Rom. 5:2; Eph. 2:18; Heb. 4:16
- then I can release the guilt associated with the past and get on with the rest of my life with a clear conscience.
Heb. 10:22
- then By His blood, my sin-debt is settled (paid in full) and Christ doesn't ever need to make sacrifice again — and neither do I.
Heb. 10:10
- then We have unbroken (linear) fellowship with one another and unbroken (linear) fellowship with God.
- then I am constantly cleansed by the blood of Christ — never unforgiven — and therefore never out of fellowship with Him and His people
- then I can live a life of freedom and security, and can give of myself freely and without reservation and restraint.
Heb. 2:15, 4:16, 10:1-2, 10:19-24;
1 Jn. 5:14-15
